Volunteers Needed for ChemFest!

ChemFest is a two-day National Chemistry Week celebration hosted by the Carnegie Science Center and the American Chemical Society. ChemFest is scheduled to take place from 9AM-3PM on Thursday, October 21st and Friday, October 22nd and will feature in-person and virtual exhibitor activities, career panels, demonstrations, and presentations that highlights this year's theme: "Fast or Slow, Chemistry Makes It Go! (Reaction Rates)".

We need help from volunteers! We urgently need:

NCW Social Media Volunteer

Coordinates all social media posts

ACS Student Chapter Volunteer

Organizes student chapters to prepare teacher kits

Volunteer STEM Professionals

Participate as exhibitors, career panel participants, or provide virtual content

If you are interested in the Social Media or Student Chapter Volunteer positions, please directly contact Evonne Baldauff at EBaldauff@Waynesburg.edu. If you are interested in the STEM professional volunteer role, read more and sign up here by Friday, October 1.

Thank you!
