

SPRING WRITING RETREAT

March 3-6

This writing retreat will take place in cabins in Oglebay Park, WV. The National Scholarships team will be on hand to work with you as a group and individually to prepare drafts of competitive essays (scholarships, or fellowships). Please apply if you are interested in taking a few days away to focus on your writing with help from the experts.

Open to all Pitt students.

“It is so hard to write about myself. This experience really made me feel more confident about it.”

“This weekend brought my writing to the next level.”

“After working with the Scholar Mentors, I felt a lot better about describing my accomplishments.”

“I got so much writing done and I am really proud of how good it is!”

“The staff made it fun, interesting, and low stress. I learned a lot from them.”
